Audizione presso la
Commissione Esteri della Camera dei Deputati
24/09/2026

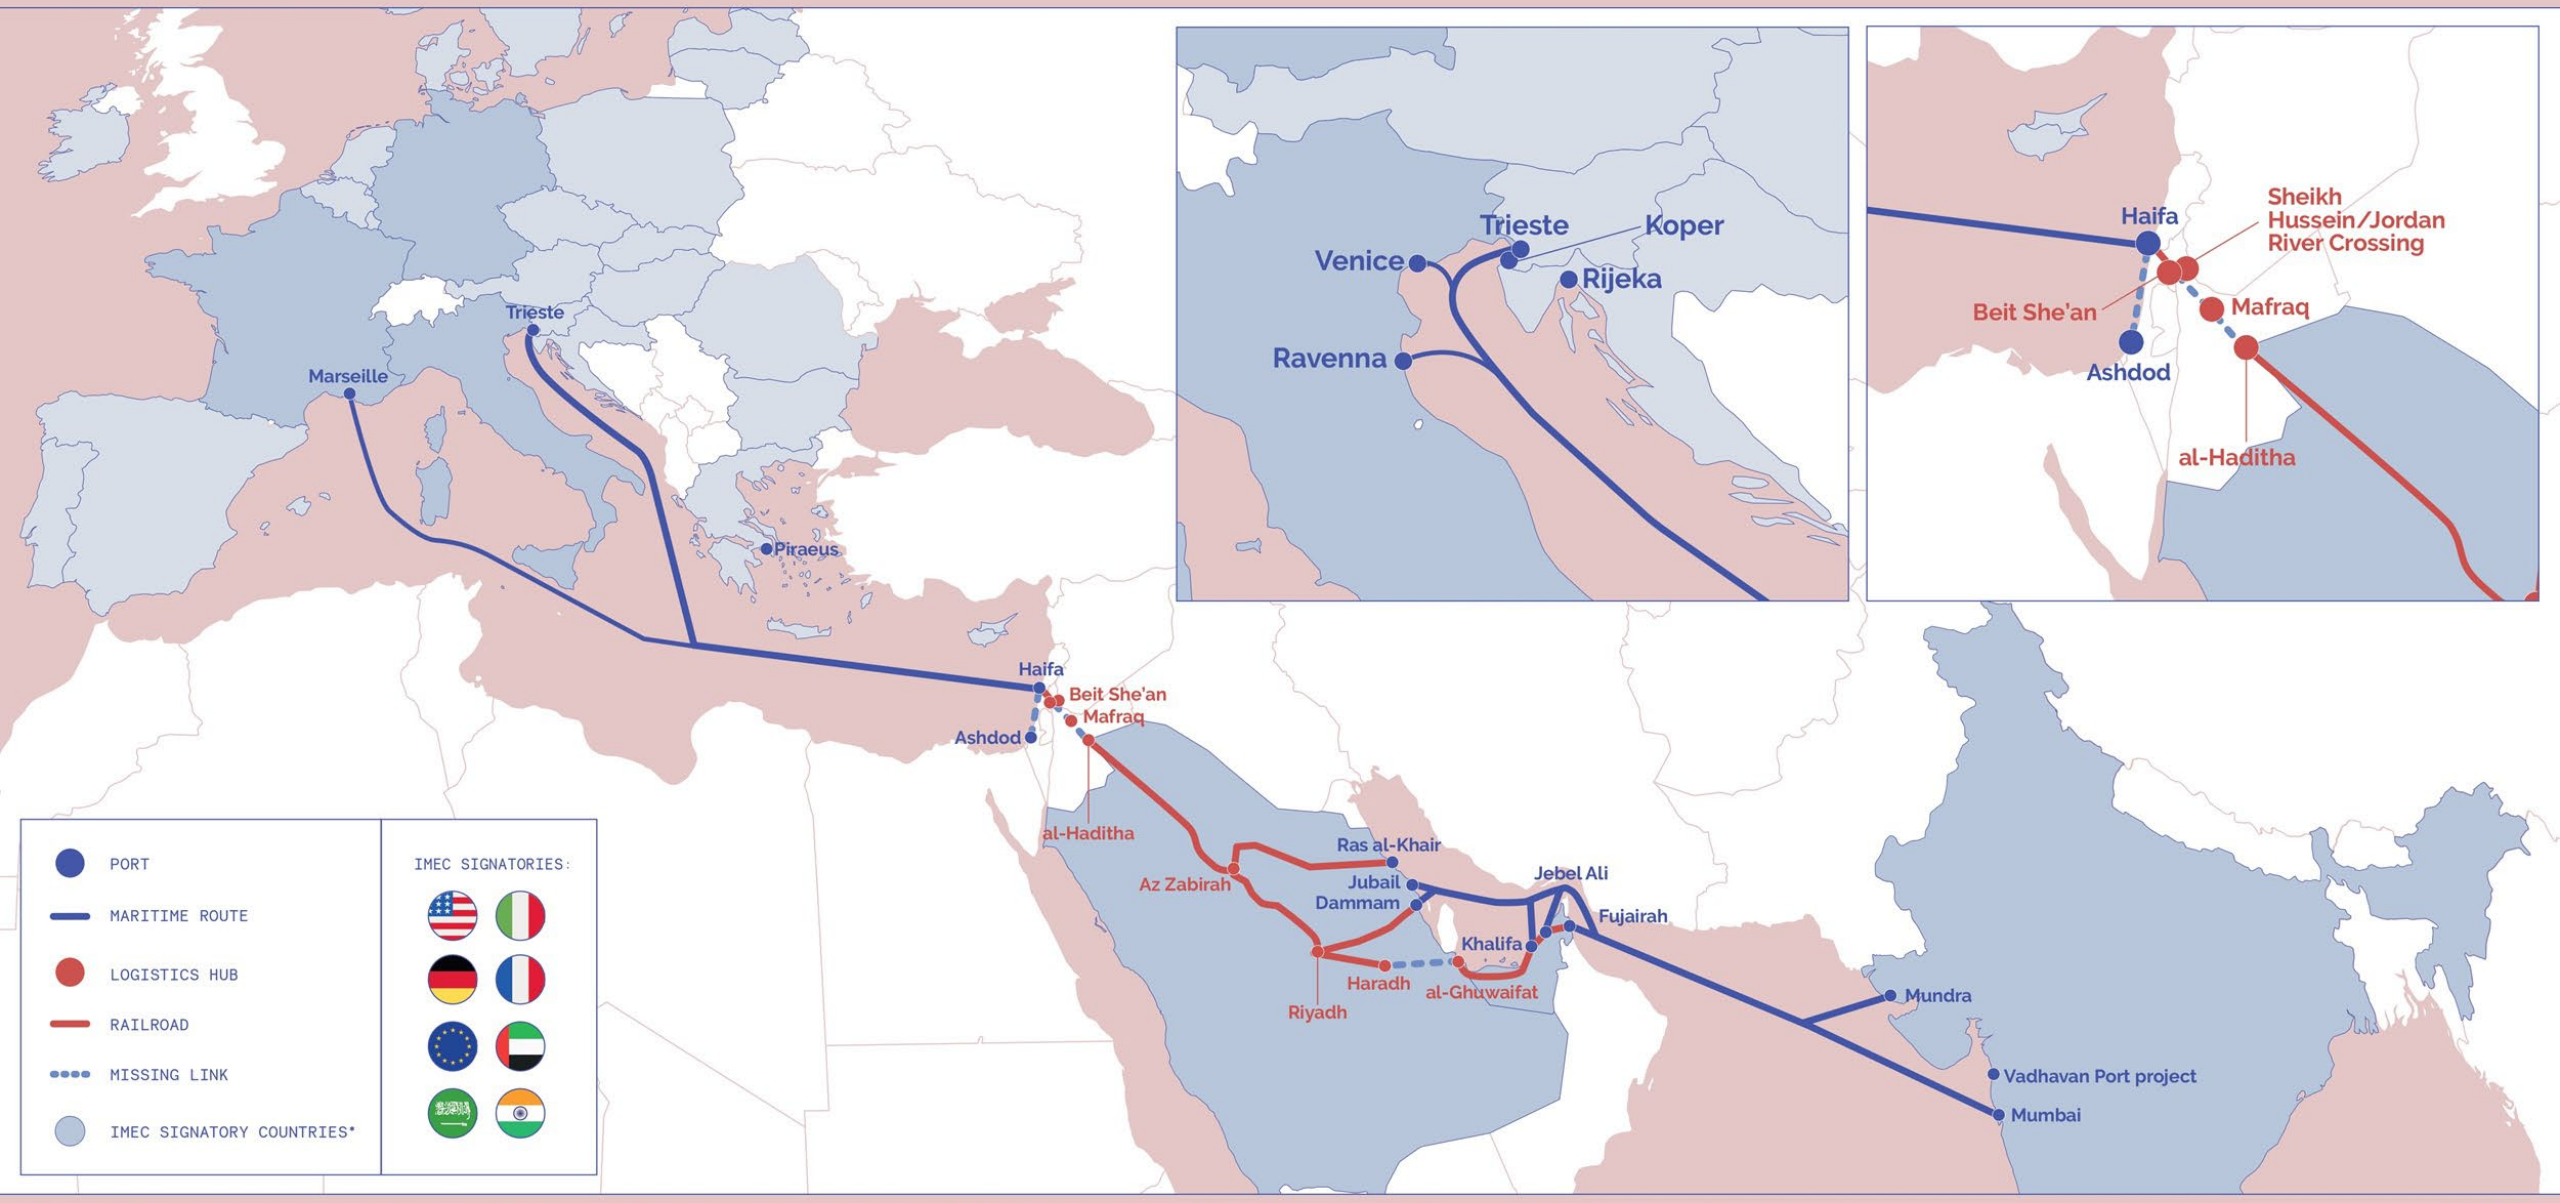

IMEC e la stabilità della regione: implicazioni per l'Italia

Filippo Fasulo, Research Coordinator
Valeria Talbot, Head, Mena Centre
ISPI (Italian Institute for International Political Studies)

IMEC
THE BACKBONE OF AN INDO-MEDITERRANEAN REGION
Italy and the Future of Transcontinental Connectivity
With a contribution from RIA
ISPI

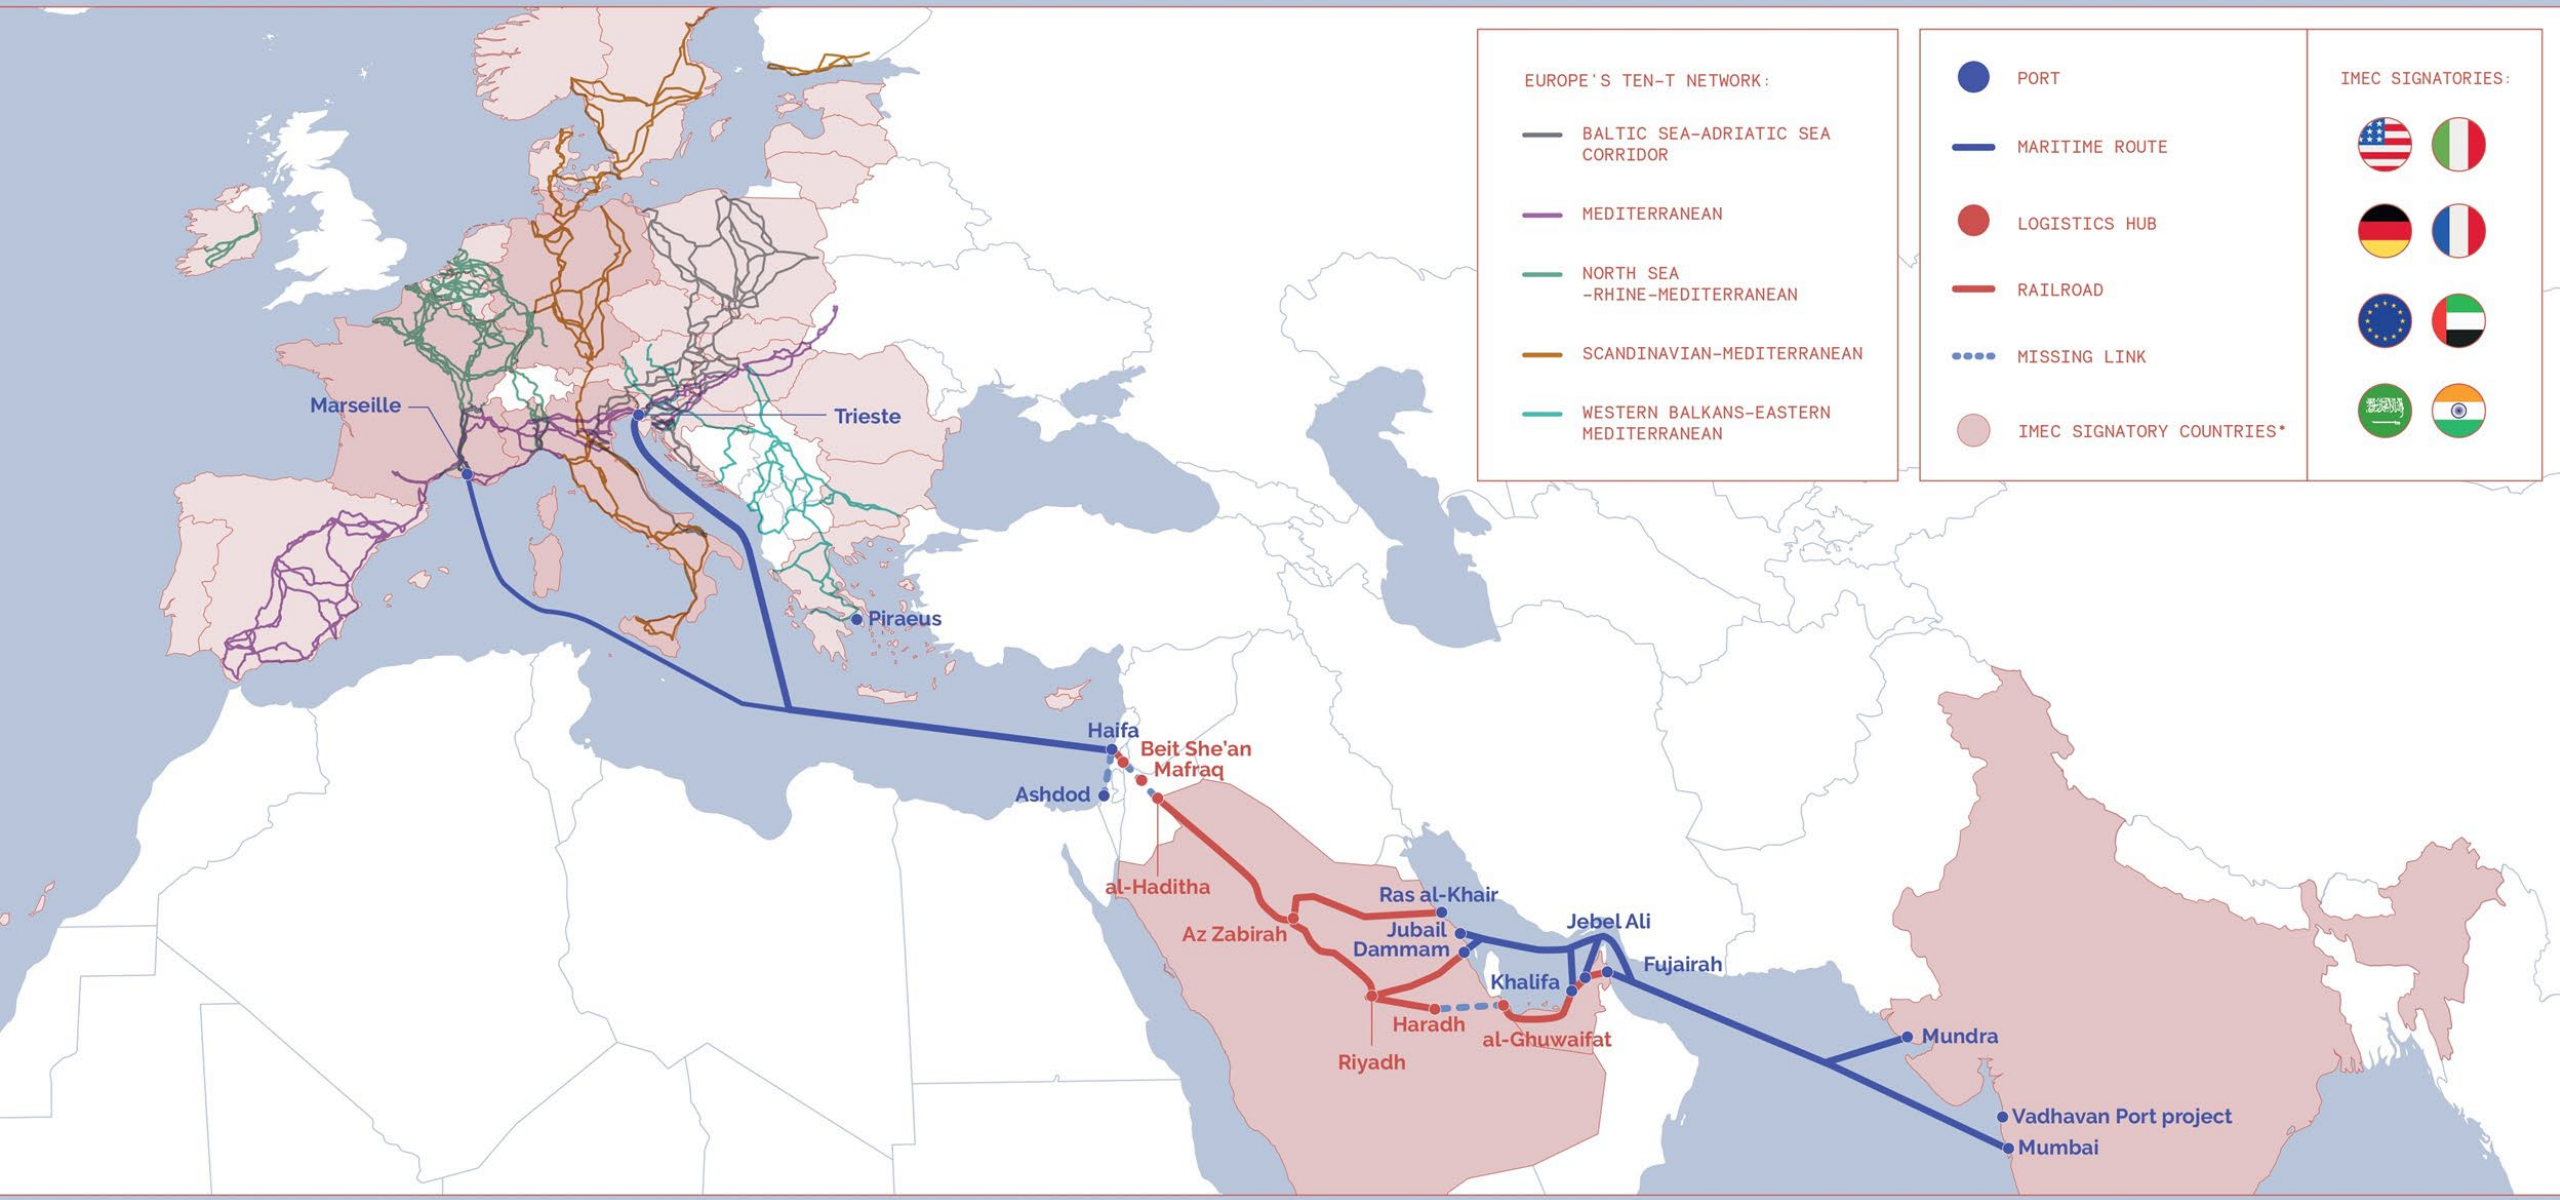

IMEC'S GATEWAYS TO THE EUROPEAN CORE

*Three EU member states - France, Italy and Germany - signed the 2023 MoU individually. Since the European Commission also signed the document, the remaining EU member states are shown in a lighter shade. Source: ISPI elaboration, Atlantic Council (March 2025)

ISPI

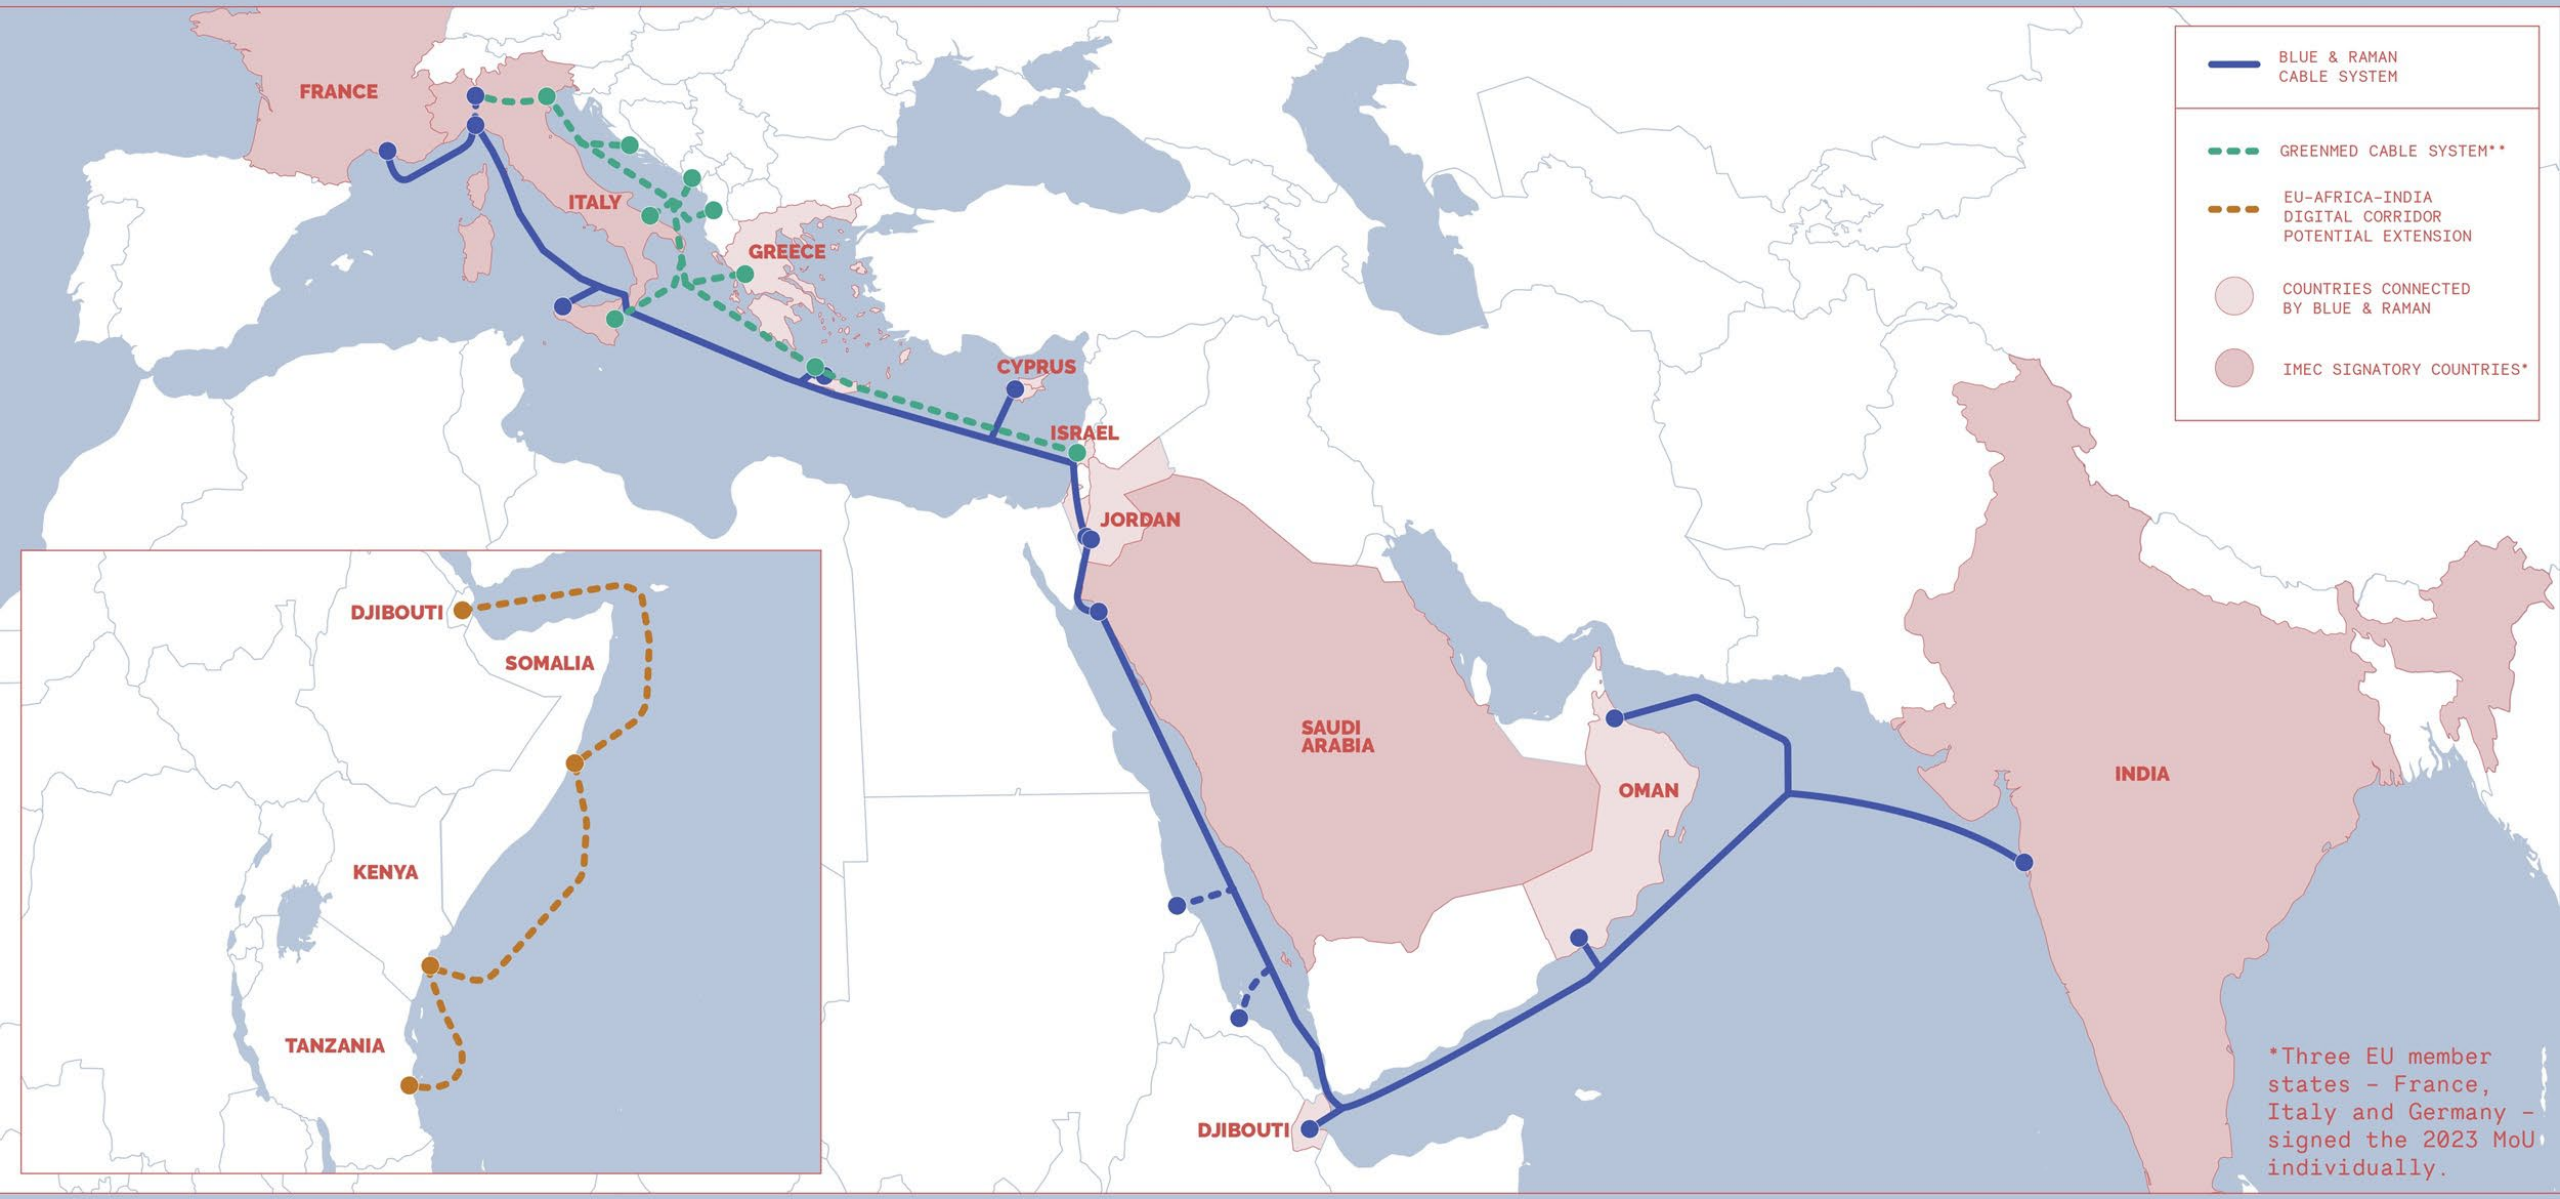

IMEC TRANSPORTATION PILLAR – A CONVERGENCE OF INTERESTS, VISIONS AND PROJECTS

*Three EU member states – France, Italy and Germany – signed the 2023 MoU individually. Since the European Commission also signed the document, the remaining EU member states are shown in a lighter shade. Source: ISPI elaboration, Atlantic Council (March 2025), European Commission

ISPI

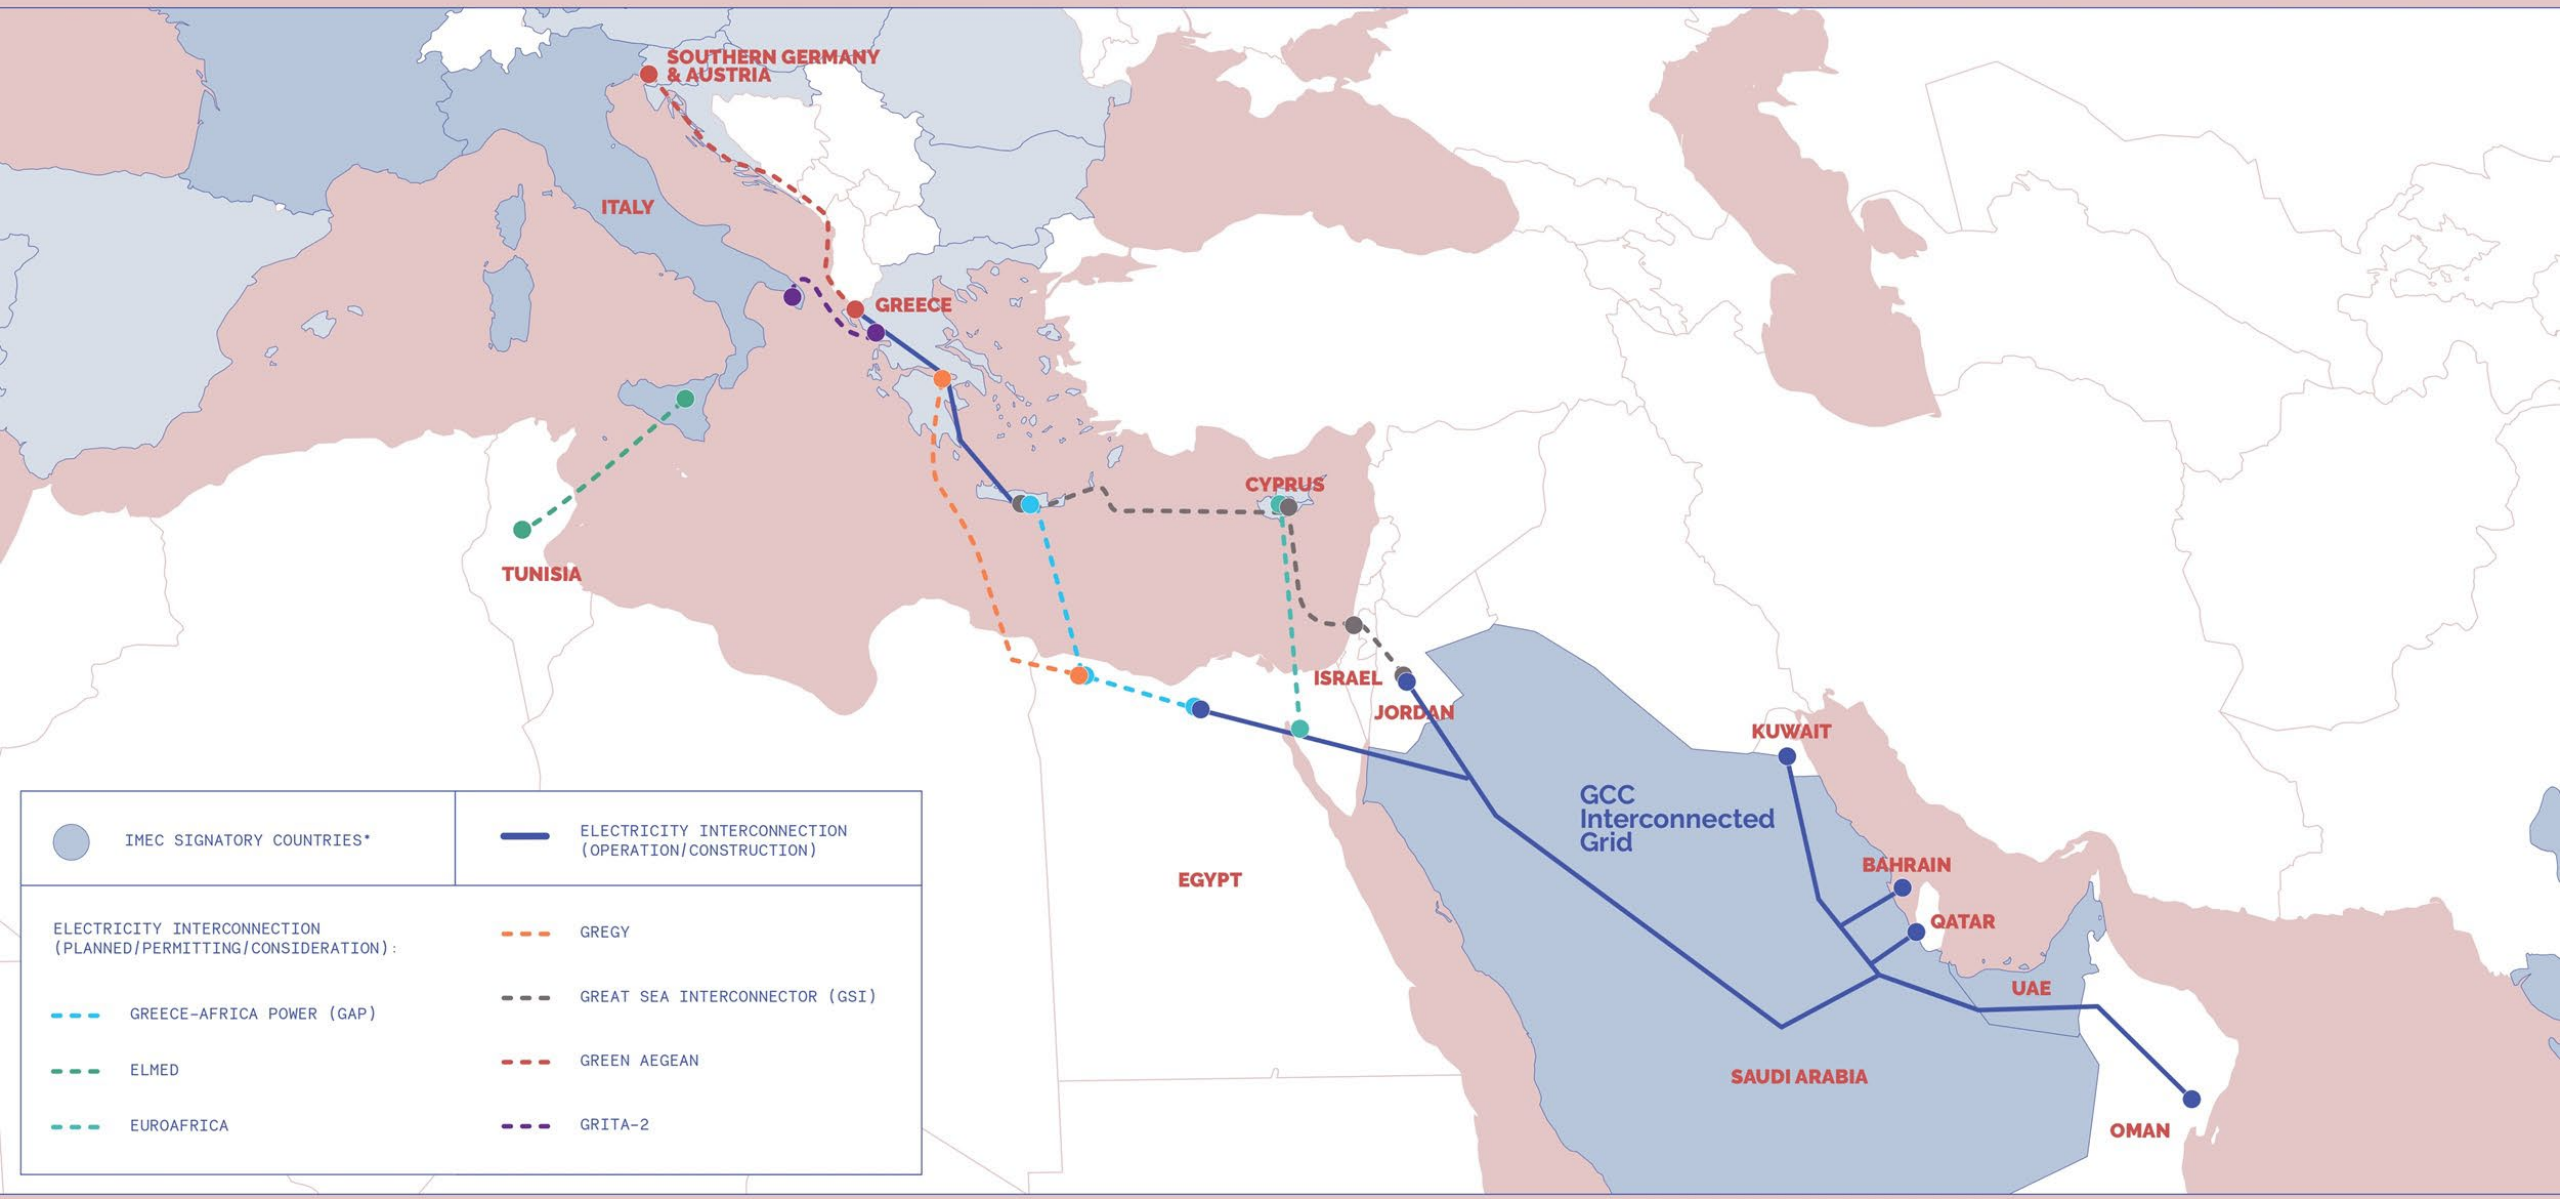

IMEC DIGITAL PILLAR – CONNECTING CONTINENTS THROUGH SUBMARINE CABLES

Although still in the planning phase, GreenMed will be part of the corridor as a standalone project, connecting Northern Italy with the West Balkans, Greece, and the Middle East. Source: ISPI elaboration, Telecom Italia Sparkle, TeleGeography, European Commission

ISPI

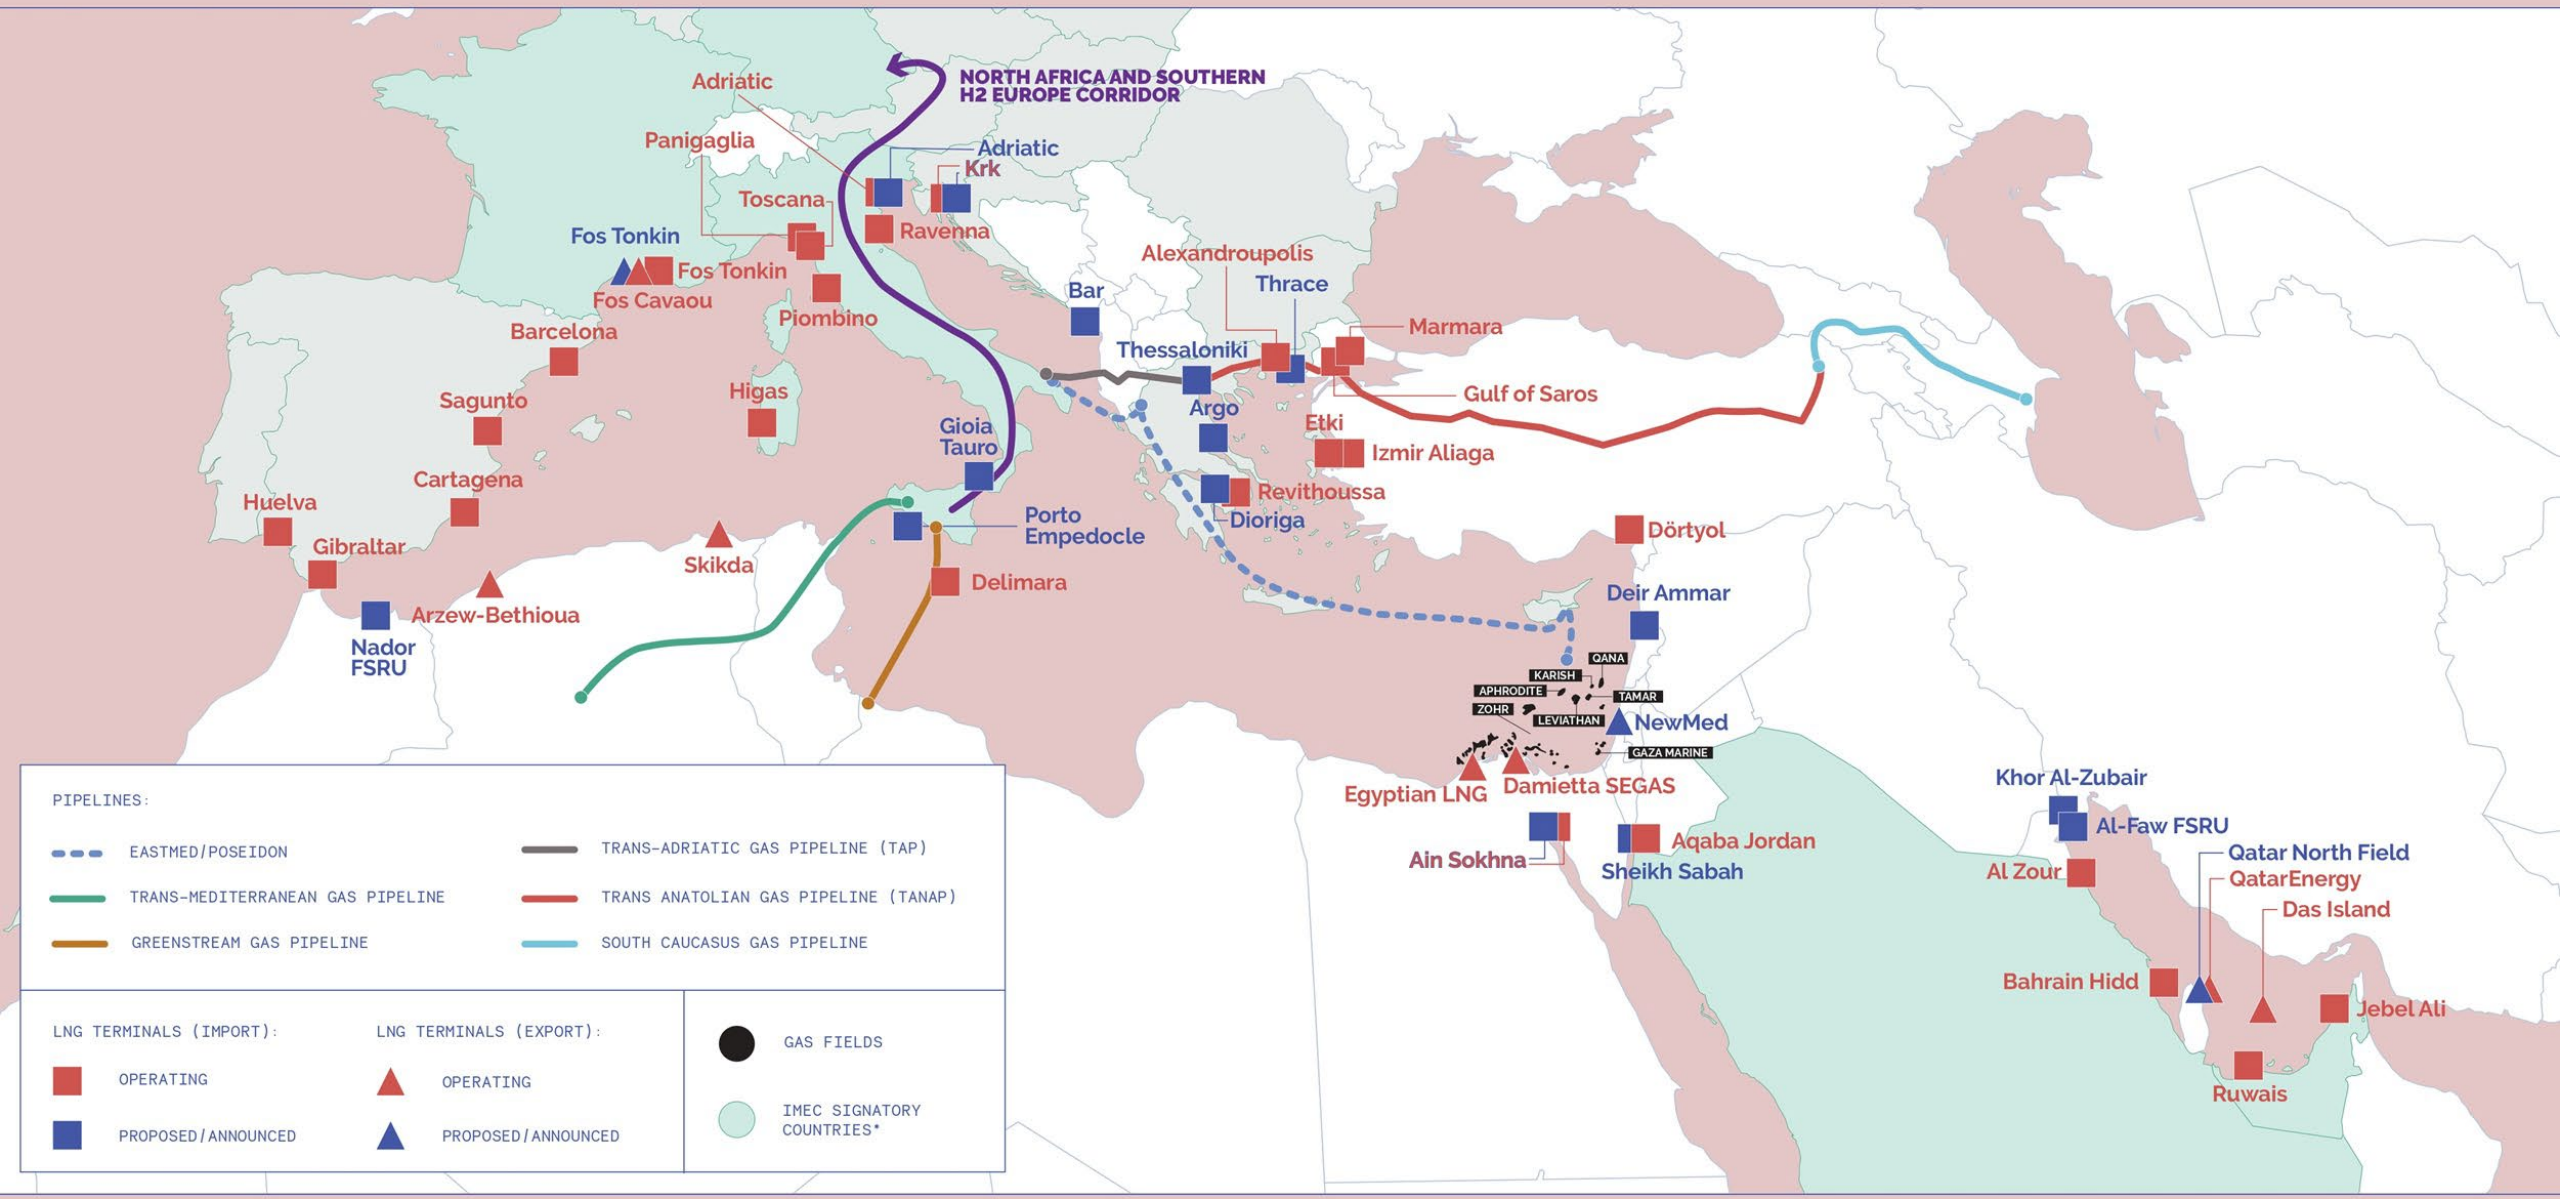

IMEC ENERGY PILLAR – ELECTRIC INTERCONNECTIONS BETWEEN SOUTHERN EUROPE AND EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN

*Three EU member states – France, Italy and Germany – signed the 2023 MoU individually. Since the European Commission also signed the document, the remaining EU member states are shown in a lighter shade. Source: ISPI elaboration on ENTSO-E, company reports

ISPI

IMEC ENERGY PILLAR – PIPES AND TERMINALS: THE EXISTING GAS CONNECTIVITY WITHIN IMEC AND IN THE MEDITERRANEAN REGION

*Three EU member states – France, Italy and Germany – signed the 2023 MoU individually. Since the European Commission also signed the document, the remaining EU member states are shown in a lighter shade. Source: Gas Infrastructure Europe, ENTSOG, European Hydrogen Backbone

ISPI